

Everybody Was There at the USEA

Everybody was there when the United States Energy Association held its fourteenth annual State of the Energy Industry Forum on January 18 at the National Press Club in Washington D.C. Take a look. You'll spot American Petroleum Institute CEO Jack Gerard, American Public Power Association CEO Sue Kelly, Edison Electric Institute President Tom Kuhn, National Rural Electric Cooperative Association CEO Jim Matheson, Electric Power Supply Association CEO John Shelk, American Council on Renewable Energy CEO Greg Wetstone. And Vicky Bailey, Barry Worthington and Dipka Bhambhani of USEA, and other movers and shakers in energy too.
